LOYALTY OF GOVERNMENT EMPLOYEES

With reference to your letter dated April 5, 1960, regarding the President's request that the Loyalty Review Board review such cases as have been identified before the Findings Subcommittee, and in accordance with my letter dated April 10, 1960, the following unverified information concerning Lifantieff-Lee is contained in the files of this Bureau.

From the testimony of Senator Joseph R. McCarthy, which testimony was set forth in the Congressional Record dated February 20, 1950, the following information appears concerning Paul A. Lifantieff-Lee:

Case No. 56. This individual was born in Russia and naturalized in San Francisco in 1929. Two former supervisors on non-Government jobs had recommended him unfavorably. The only favorable reference he had was from three Russian individuals all in Government employment. He roomed with one of the Russians who had recommended him. The Navy Department informed the State Department that this individual had secret State Department documents in the room shared by him and the other Russian. An investigation was instituted, the outcome of which I do not know. However, this individual was still in the State Department as late as December, 1949.
